J. D. STRINGFELLOW SUED FOR DAMAGES

Mew York Firm Selected Opportunity to Serve Papers on Him.

When it Was Ascertained That He Was Visiting the American Metropelis the Firm Against Whom He Had Secured Judgment Sued for Slander.

Information comes from New York to the effect that J. D. Stringfellow. well-known citizen and trucker of als city, has been served with papers shodying a suit for damages in the greme court of the City of New Yerk. The allegation is slander.

Mr. Stringfellow has been in New Yerk for some time, and when Vaughn Co. ascertained that he was visiting e city, the papers were served.

Whether or not Vaughn & Co., to are extensive seed dealers well mown throughout this section, will make any capital out of this suit yet bo's friends here look upon the case

It will be remembered that at the at term of the circuit court Mr. wingfellow was the prosecutor in a g for damages against the Vaughn Bed Store, his charge being a failof crop, and his allegation that defendant company had supplied with inferior seed. The suit was $1,950, and a judgment was renlered by the firm for $950.

Nothing more was thought of this nee here, as it had been settled in mine form by law. However, the she Seed Store did not seem satas they estimated the damage ir. Stringfellow, and the minute they band out that he was in New York he necessary papers were served, and he was summoned to appear in

It is not known just what the disesition of the case amounted to, but 2 is supposed that Mr. Stringfellow ave bond, and will appear to answer the charges at the proper time.

A young white man by the name of Corbett, who was the prosecuting witness in the case of the city vs. B. Beville, charged with selling liquor without a license, was arraigned in mayor's court himself Saturday morning upon a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Corbett was arrested by Marshal Arnow, who found an ugly-looking pistol in his possession.

When arraigned in court Saturday morning it was explained by Officer Kite that Corbett had been deputized to do special police work on Friday night, hence he was released.
